

IT governance manages governance and risks while maintaining compliance with industry and government regulations. A comprehensive IT strategy with strong IT governance can streamline IT decision making, ultimately driving results against key business goals