The use of learning technology leads to many benefits to the learning process in general. Teachers can add some interactive and entertaining activities during the learning process.