Houses of the Future In 50–100 years, houses will be very different from today.New technology will change the way we live, and homes will be smarter and more comfortable.People will use advanced systems at home, and life will be easier.Houses might look modern, but they will also be more environmentally friendly.First, technology at home will improve a lot.Every house will have smart systems and large screens on the walls.People will control lights, doors, and temperature with voice .control

lakhasly.com © تم تلخيص النص بواسطة موقع لخصلي