

In this course, I have developed many important academic and professional skills. I also studied the importance of referencing and how to properly cite sources to avoid plagiarism. We practiced collaborative work, which improved my communication skills with my peers.