

Forming: getting oriented to the team goals and each other, finding out what the tasks are, and who they will be working with. ●Storming: intragroup conflict, attempts at dominance, passive–aggressive behavior, along with information withholding and other forms of resistance to team tasks and goals