

My education will play a vital role in shaping my future. Education will give me the knowledge and skills needed to achieve my dream. I plan to study medicine because I have always been passionate about helping others. By becoming a doctor, I will be able to save lives and make a difference in my community.