

A summary involves rewriting a text in a concise manner while adhering to certain rules and retaining essential information. In essence, a summary is a text rewritten within a limited space, and it is shorter than the original text.