

A traffic accident. It was a rainy day, so the schools were closed until the weather improved. At 5 a.m. my family was asleep, but I was awake watching TV after I prayed. Suddenly I heard the sound of a collision coming from the street between our house and the garden. It was a loud and frightening sound. The small car was greatly damaged, but the truck was not greatly affected, but the driver was. It was Thursday morning.