

A large family advances, read from a small interest for each child, as well as a theme sport can be activated in addition to a lack of pressure on the buttons of a large society, perhaps there is a lot of pressure and much greater than no interest, it is preferable for each child. Having a large family meant ..that there was more labor participation to participate in the work by sharing with each other