Explanation: This entry records the estimated uncollectible accounts for the period. This way, the company anticipates and accounts for potential losses from customers who may not pay their invoices.