

providing qualified dental care to the population of the site; organization and implementation of preventive measures (including primary prevention) to reduce dental diseases; study of dental morbidity at the site; carrying out sanitary and educational work; dispensary observation of patients with dental and somatic profiles; carrying out planned sanitation of the oral cavity for pre-conscripts, pregnant women, people suffering from chronic diseases (cardiovascular, gastrointestinal, frequent tonsillitis, etc).