Saudi Arabia has introduced the unified logistics license, consolidating various activities into a single unified license for logistics services related to land, air, and sea freight. Its primary objective is to enhance and develop the logistic performance index through its services. This initiative is geared towards improving operations within the sector, leveraging promising investment opportunities to strengthen the local economy and its integration with the international market. The Kingdom has licensed over 1,500 local, regional, and international logistics companies.

lakhasly.com © تم تلخيص النص بواسطة موقع لخصلي