

Providing technological education that provides integrated educational and training services of a quality comparable to international quality systems, allowing the formation of a graduate capable of competing in local, regional and global labor markets