

Good morning all !One of the most important historical facts about it is that it was built by the Nabataeans and that they were late in exploring it. Among the things that make Petra a subject of interest is the extent of the beauty of its architecture and the culture it contains.The price of this trip costs .50 dinars