

Social media is very important in everyone's life. The negative impact of social media on our lives results from excessive use, which reduces integration into real life and causes depression in teenagers, so its use must be reduced.