

PepsiCo said on October 3, 2019, that it was leaving Indonesia after PT Anugerah Indofood Barokah Makmur (AIBM), a local distributor, was terminated. PepsiCo said in January 2021 that it will strive for net zero greenhouse gas emissions by 2040 in an effort to combat global warming, even though it had already begun producing around 57 million of them at that point. The snack brand BFY Brands was purchased by PepsiCo on December 2, 2019, and it will become a part of the Frito-Lay business. On October 10, both businesses ceased producing PepsiCo goods.
