

Hello everyone, I will talk about my dream job. Software engineering is responsible for applying the principles of software engineering, designing, developing and maintaining software