

A total of 151 responses were collected and analyzed in the current study. The sample consisted predominantly of Saudi participants (90.1%), which is expected given that the study was conducted in Saudi Arabia.