

Abawajy [35] evaluated information security awareness methods, including interactive videos, internal training, screen savers, email, and social media, used to increase end-user awareness and behavior, particularly regarding phishing attacks and behavior