

The most abundant compound in the olives phenolic fraction was hydroxytyrosol, with a concentration of .410.2 +- 15.8 mg/kg fresh weight (Table 1), while tyrosol showed a concentration 10 times lower