

The job of an idol Although I am good at singing and everybody expects me to become a doctor, I would like to be a singer and dancer, This job requires that you have a good Voice, flexibility in dancing and good knowledge of musical instruments. like Korean groups, they go through a training Period and after that they join a Pop company, Such as Hype company