

Grade 9 Unit 1 Write an essay of 110–130 words to compare and contrast your personality with that of a family member or friend It's normal to come from a large family and share personality traits with many family members. I like cold weather and playing outside with my friends, but my uncle enjoys sitting and reading by the fireplace. On the other hand, when we play one of my video games, we have fun But it .doesn't really matter to me what we do together