

At a Restaurant Thank you so much for meeting me here.I want to order a large meal because I am so hungry I hope one of the service workers comes by soon so that we can place our order.I would like a main course, but I would also like several desserts.Here comes our server now.I have wanted to try this restaurant for a while now.It is supposed to be really good!It smells amazing, so if it tastes anywhere near that good, I know I will be happy that I came.That is good to hear.What kind of food are you hoping to get?I am looking at this menu and do not see many names of dishes that I recognize.I can order for you, if you like.Great
