

Significance of the Study: The study will be of meaningful insight into the pragmatic impact brought by a digital transformation in tax administration. Primarily, the comparative analysis is used to attribute the performance of the SAP against the previously used SIREC + SGF system. Methodology: The research would be conducted in a descriptive and analyzing manner