

It is the right of a person everywhere, at any time, and regardless of his nationality, gender, sect, race, language, and color, to enjoy freedom. This is exactly what happened with the Palestinian people when the Israelis occupied their land and took away their freedom. It was necessary to defend his rights and resist the occupation with the force of truth and the weapons of resistance.