Al-Jabal al-Akhdar is a mountain located in the Sultanate of Oman in the state of Al-Jabal Al-Akhdar in the Dakhlia governorate, which is part of the Hajar mountain range and has an altitude of about 3000 meters . There are many villages in it that are a beautiful artistic painting built by grandparents and parents, including Wadi Bani Habib, Al-Ain, Al-Masirah, Aqaba houses and the estate, and there are old houses, farms and agricultural terraces. It is characterized by a unique climate in the Arabian Gulf and is characterized by moderate temperatures in summer and severe cold in winter . The Green Mountain is famous for its charming nature and the cultivation of other types of fruits and plants such as . pomegranate grapes, apples, berries and others