

The Organization • The innermost layer, representing the core of the business • The Competition in the Market • The layer surrounding the organization • Refers to the competitive landscape within the market • The Industry (Sector) • The second outer layer of the business environment • Involves the broader industry or sector • The Macro-environment • The outermost layer of the business environment • Represents the external factors and forces