

We must protect our planet. You. Use a computer or tablet instead of paper to make notes and that helps the environment. When you want to print something, you can print it on both sides of the paper to reduce waste. You can also study during the day instead of during the evening because this helps reduce the waste of electricity. You are possibly buying pens made of recycled materials