Many enterprise networks require redundant HA (High Availability) infrastructure for key systems like network firewalls، collection of open-source packages that I use to create the HA firewall in this article are iptables, conntrackd, keepalived and Firewall Builder.