

Based on the given indicators in checklist provided, Aramco seems to align with the "I managed" level for most of the indicators, indicating a substantial maturity in information security practices. However, there are some indicators from the "Essential" and "Informal" levels that are not fully met