

Commercial law–commercial corporations– Dr. Doaa Magdy Abdel–Moaty 75 Chapter Two: classification of Commercial Companies in Egypt. In this chapter we will discuss the jurisprudential classification of companies in Egypt to personal, capital and hybrid companies. And then we will discuss each type of companies in a separate sub–chapter as follows: Section One: jurisprudential classification of companies in Egypt Jurisprudentially, Commercial Companies can be classified into three main types, and they are: 1– Personal companies 2– Capital companies 3– Hybrid companies First: Personal companies: Persons companies: are based on the idea of personal consideration between the partners, each partner feels confident to others, so they are formed from small number of partners. The basis for establishing a person's companies is mutual trust between the partners, so it is not Yasmine–Mohamed–Mohamed–Ragab– Jamil_30203090103744_10521746869