

The full-depth asphalt patch is an important maintenance technique for protecting and preserving the sizable investment in roads