

A job is important for all people in their lives, without a job there people will not find a way to meet their basic needs in life, After completing my university studies, I hope to become an English teacher, .Because my father, an English teacher and I aspire to become a teacher like him in the future