

Introduction: (Short Paragraph of 3–5 sentences) Begin the summary with an introductory paragraph –2 about the topic of the video and the purpose of the lecture.3– Key Presentation Points: (3–5 key points in bullets) Outline the main points of the video and summarize each key point of the video such as main ideas, arguments, and perspectives presented by the Lecturer.5– Personal Reflection (Short Paragraph of 5–10 sentences) Include a brief personal reflection on your own thoughts about the topic presented in the video.4– Key Discussion Points: (3–5 key points in bullets) Summarize any perspectives or ideas that emerged during the group discussion session in class.Organization Use clear and concise language throughout the summary.Use at least 4 different Academic Language phrases or expressions