

Assessment: Evaluation of a patient's physical, social, and emotional state is essential. Care Plans:
Development of tailored care strategies for individual patient