

Sole proprietorship lacks liability protection; partnerships share liability; corporations offer protection but face double taxation; LLCs combine protection with tax flexibility