

"Great Expectations" by Charles Dickens follows the life of Pip, an orphan raised by his sister and her kind-hearted husband, Joe Gargery. The plot unfolds in three stages of Pip's life: Stage One: Pip meets an escaped convict, Magwitch, and helps him by providing food and a file. Later, he is invited to the home of the wealthy and eccentric Miss Havisham, where he meets Estella, her beautiful but cold-hearted ward. Stage Three: Pip learns that his true benefactor is Magwitch, the convict he helped as a child. Pip loses his fortune and learns valuable lessons about loyalty, humility, and the true nature of wealth and gentility. In the end, Pip reconciles with Joe and returns to his roots, having grown wiser and more compassionate.
