

To be a pioneering effective serving research learning program, both locally and regionally that provides up to date, authentic, practical and educational experiences for the stakeholders in the field of Early Childhood.