In this stage of the graduation project we have worked on aspects like, Problem understanding, literature review, System analysis, System design.Gamification features can be introduced to encourage user participation, and scalability can be ensured by enabling integration with multi-library networks.Adding blockchain technology could improve the security of book transaction records, while extending the system to manage digital resources would broaden its scope.