

In this presentation, I will focus on main points: First, I will provide a definition of the concept of XR, and I will explain that it includes three techniques, and I will explain them in a simplified way Second, I'm going to talk about how XR has helped transform education from just indoctrination to a fun interactive experience, and how the student has become more engaged and engaged with the educational content