

In the wake of Hurricane Daniel that struck Libya on September 10, the International Committee of the Red Crescent is working to deliver medicine, food and household supplies to survivors. We also distribute medicines, food, household supplies and body bags