

It seeks to create a vibrant society with a thriving economy and a strong sense of national identity. The vision also aims to empower the private sector