

This paper looks at how artificial intelligence( AI) affects women's commission in India. It examines how AI can help close gender gaps, make it easier for women to get education and healthcare, and help .women earn further plutocrat