

The State Council can contribute to enhancing public-private sector cooperation by proposing initiatives
.that facilitate partnerships between the government and investors