

The NOR gate gives an output of 1 only when both inputs are 0, and an output of 0 when either or both inputs are 1. This matches the logical NOR operation, as shown in the truth table