

also I think that it is important for students to have access to smartphones in the classroom so they can .learn new things and stay connected with their classmates