

This study explores the role of Human Resources (HR) in promoting gender equality within the Jordanian banking sector, focusing on Arab Bank and Housing Bank. These recommendations aim to foster a more inclusive and equitable workplace environment in the Jordanian banking sector. Using a quantitative approach, 53 surveys were conducted with HR managers and employees to assess the prevalence and effectiveness of various HR practices.