

The teaching and learning quality is highly influenced by the internal factors, e.g., the teacher's performance, since teachers can affect their students' achievements. Therefore, educational zone requires a serene atmosphere instead of any disturbances including from the traffic noise. The social atmosphere of a school is a potential and important contributing factor to the student outcomes [3]