

The zipper transformed fashion by making it quicker and easier to fasten clothes luggage shoes and other everyday items. Before zippers buttons laces and bows were used but they were slower and less reliable. This invention has simplified both design and functionality in fashion and daily life making it a small yet essential part of modern convenience