

It has been a pleasure and an amazing journey working with my group on this project. There were several disagreements about the presentation and the topics. Our group leader Shahad has worked very hard to keep us on track and make sure everyone's ideas and input were heard. The course taught us a lot about communication and teamwork.